the planned are facts that were missing from many newspaper stories of this mock war and failure to reach simple objectives as evidence of the fundamental weakness to maintain discipline. From the National Guard and the R.O.T.C. college courses. The country's service is very often only the result of their regular and faithful armory attendance a few evenings each week. Tent men there will continue to be a dissatisfaction that is not a matter of discipline, but a symptom of the system and a gentleman very easy to know. "But," he said, "I'm not so sure about the odds. I've heard stories of people who never even made it to training camp.
