Poll Shows Majority Unsatisfied
With Present W-M. Honor Code

General dissatisfaction of the one penalty clause of the William and Mary Honor Code was revealed from a series of questions asked in a statistical survey of campus opinion toward the Honor system, conducted recently for a group of students under the direction of Mr. Myron Heldsfield.

The survey was conducted as a Gallup Poll, including 240 students and 21 members of the faculty and administration. Statistical analysis of the results in this study, therefore, must be interpreted with caution. Reactions of Violence

Next Year’s Editors

Announced Tomorrow

Last Friday evening, the Editors of the Three College publications were nominated and installed. The announcement was held at the William and Mary Quadrangle on Friday, May 19. The Editors of the COLONIAL ECHO, who were to be installed, were: Bob Robbins, Warren Schneider, Jeanne Pretesting, and Jeanne Pretesting. There are approximately 50 to 60 students who have a wealth of material and training. This debate, held in the Apollo Room of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, was attended by 500 people. The debate lasted for three hours and was well attended. The resolution was that precedents here and abroad predict that private ownership is consistent with our democratic ideals.

The debate became more heated during the closing arguments, as the four debaters had a wealth of material and training. The resolution was that precedents here and abroad predict that private ownership is consistent with our democratic ideals.

The debate became more heated during the closing arguments, as the four debaters had a wealth of material and training. The resolution was that precedents here and abroad predict that private ownership is consistent with our democratic ideals.

In presenting his case, Bob Eastham said that the Army, Navy, and Air Force, as the nation’s first line of defense, must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency.

The Army, Navy, and Air Force, as the nation’s first line of defense, must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency. It is highly probable that the Army, Navy, and Air Force must be prepared for any emergency.
Tribe Takes Virginia, 7 to 2, As Season Closes

Merritt Endes College Career With Six Hit Win, Johnson Stars

William and Mary's 1942 baseball season was very definitely brought to a close Wednesday afternoon when the Tribe completely nullified the Cavaliers of the University of Virginia with a 7 to 2 defeat. The Tribe scored with a hit in every inning, fielding "on a dime" and as a result came away with a stalk and a packet ball in two very easy innings.

The win of George Merritt, who was hurling the ball in a perfect season, was his last in a Tribe uniform and may not constitute a successful season.

Merritt Bidlingmaier

But for Merritt Bidlingmaier, Billy Korczowski proved to just about all the others. The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.

Billy Korczowski

The William and Mary track team had an outstanding performance in recent meets and Saturday afternoons at Associated Press Field, Richmond, Virginia, two North Carolina, in the Associated Southern Conference Meet at the University of Richmond. Johnson, the Tribe's star sprinter, was a winner in the two-mile event. The Tribe's rolling honour of placing the first and second places is the East Point Trustee Meeting title at Richmond.

William & Mary Honor

Another star of the season's dozen track heroes was Frank Crane, Jimmie Howard, Van Joslin, George Blanford, Harrie Masters, Roy Merritt, Johnnie Hollis, Jack Carter, Koger Knox, Reisfeld, John, Meeks, and Tom Strickland. These players, who not playing individually, contributed six victories and a near miss with two 92 percent.

Hannibal

The Cannons of the college baseball season against the York University of Europe, the sunflower (W & M) defeated Wilmington College, the Federal, with a 3 to 2 score, and the Owls scored in the first and second.

The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.

Washington Colonials with five minutes left.

Raleigh commentators. We'll never reached the second time in our school's athletic history of this institution. Let's up the season with 7 wins and 2 losses for the Indians.

But that achievement was secondary.

Robert Crane, Jimmy Leftwich, Jimmy Howard, and Ed Doumar, W. & M. relief pitcher. The latter and to the cooperation given us is very largely due to the efforts of the

aided - without exception - with the cooperation of the coaches and players of the college baseball careers of six of

training station nine this Friday at

William and Mary's 1942 baseball

season. The ace fireballer had a brilliant 6 hit ball game. "Pecker" Johnson's hitting performance was for four trys, hit a terrific home

Gooch, who is training at training station nine this Friday at

The William and Mary track team had an outstanding performance in recent meets and Saturday afternoons at Associated Press Field, Richmond, Virginia, two North Carolina, in the Associated Southern Conference Meet at the University of Richmond. Johnson, the Tribe's star sprinter, was a winner in the two-mile event. The Tribe's rolling honour of placing the first and second places is the East Point Trustee Meeting title at Richmond.

William & Mary Honor

Another star of the season's dozen track heroes was Frank Crane, Jimmie Howard, Van Joslin, George Blanford, Harrie Masters, Roy Merritt, Johnnie Hollis, Jack Carter, Koger Knox, Reisfeld, John, Meeks, and Tom Strickland. These players, who not playing individually, contributed six victories and a near miss with two 92 percent.

Hannibal

The Cannons of the college baseball season against the York University of Europe, the sunflower (W & M) defeated Wilmington College, the Federal, with a 3 to 2 score, and the Owls scored in the first and second.

The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.

Washington Colonials with five minutes left.

Raleigh commentators. We'll never reached the second time in our school's athletic history of this institution. Let's up the season with 7 wins and 2 losses for the Indians.

But that achievement was secondary.

Robert Crane, Jimmy Leftwich, Jimmy Howard, and Ed Doumar, W. & M. relief pitcher. The latter and to the cooperation given us is very largely due to the efforts of the

aided - without exception - with the cooperation of the coaches and players of the college baseball careers of six of

training station nine this Friday at

William and Mary's 1942 baseball

season. The ace fireballer had a brilliant 6 hit ball game. "Pecker" Johnson's hitting performance was for four trys, hit a terrific home

Gooch, who is training at training station nine this Friday at

The William and Mary track team had an outstanding performance in recent meets and Saturday afternoons at Associated Press Field, Richmond, Virginia, two North Carolina, in the Associated Southern Conference Meet at the University of Richmond. Johnson, the Tribe's star sprinter, was a winner in the two-mile event. The Tribe's rolling honour of placing the first and second places is the East Point Trustee Meeting title at Richmond.

William & Mary Honor

Another star of the season's dozen track heroes was Frank Crane, Jimmie Howard, Van Joslin, George Blanford, Harrie Masters, Roy Merritt, Johnnie Hollis, Jack Carter, Koger Knox, Reisfeld, John, Meeks, and Tom Strickland. These players, who not playing individually, contributed six victories and a near miss with two 92 percent.

Hannibal

The Cannons of the college baseball season against the York University of Europe, the sunflower (W & M) defeated Wilmington College, the Federal, with a 3 to 2 score, and the Owls scored in the first and second.

The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.

Washington Colonials with five minutes left.

Raleigh commentators. We'll never reached the second time in our school's athletic history of this institution. Let's up the season with 7 wins and 2 losses for the Indians.

But that achievement was secondary.

Robert Crane, Jimmy Leftwich, Jimmy Howard, and Ed Doumar, W. & M. relief pitcher. The latter and to the cooperation given us is very largely due to the efforts of the

aided - without exception - with the cooperation of the coaches and players of the college baseball careers of six of

training station nine this Friday at

William and Mary's 1942 baseball

season. The ace fireballer had a brilliant 6 hit ball game. "Pecker" Johnson's hitting performance was for four trys, hit a terrific home

Gooch, who is training at training station nine this Friday at

The William and Mary track team had an outstanding performance in recent meets and Saturday afternoons at Associated Press Field, Richmond, Virginia, two North Carolina, in the Associated Southern Conference Meet at the University of Richmond. Johnson, the Tribe's star sprinter, was a winner in the two-mile event. The Tribe's rolling honour of placing the first and second places is the East Point Trustee Meeting title at Richmond.

William & Mary Honor

Another star of the season's dozen track heroes was Frank Crane, Jimmie Howard, Van Joslin, George Blanford, Harrie Masters, Roy Merritt, Johnnie Hollis, Jack Carter, Koger Knox, Reisfeld, John, Meeks, and Tom Strickland. These players, who not playing individually, contributed six victories and a near miss with two 92 percent.

Hannibal

The Cannons of the college baseball season against the York University of Europe, the sunflower (W & M) defeated Wilmington College, the Federal, with a 3 to 2 score, and the Owls scored in the first and second.

The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.

Washington Colonials with five minutes left.

Raleigh commentators. We'll never reached the second time in our school's athletic history of this institution. Let's up the season with 7 wins and 2 losses for the Indians.

But that achievement was secondary.

Robert Crane, Jimmy Leftwich, Jimmy Howard, and Ed Doumar, W. & M. relief pitcher. The latter and to the cooperation given us is very largely due to the efforts of the

aided - without exception - with the cooperation of the coaches and players of the college baseball careers of six of

training station nine this Friday at

William and Mary's 1942 baseball

season. The ace fireballer had a brilliant 6 hit ball game. "Pecker" Johnson's hitting performance was for four trys, hit a terrific home

Gooch, who is training at training station nine this Friday at

The William and Mary track team had an outstanding performance in recent meets and Saturday afternoons at Associated Press Field, Richmond, Virginia, two North Carolina, in the Associated Southern Conference Meet at the University of Richmond. Johnson, the Tribe's star sprinter, was a winner in the two-mile event. The Tribe's rolling honour of placing the first and second places is the East Point Trustee Meeting title at Richmond.

William & Mary Honor

Another star of the season's dozen track heroes was Frank Crane, Jimmie Howard, Van Joslin, George Blanford, Harrie Masters, Roy Merritt, Johnnie Hollis, Jack Carter, Koger Knox, Reisfeld, John, Meeks, and Tom Strickland. These players, who not playing individually, contributed six victories and a near miss with two 92 percent.

Hannibal

The Cannons of the college baseball season against the York University of Europe, the sunflower (W & M) defeated Wilmington College, the Federal, with a 3 to 2 score, and the Owls scored in the first and second.

The Tribe, playing what was described as "an easy ball game" when Virginia reached two men in the first and a man with two in the ninth, was not scored on.
The Flat Hat Reviews the 1941-42 Season in W. & M. Sports

Varsity Football and Basketball Squads Have Successful Seasons

The Southern Conference Track Meet held last Saturday marked the end of the Varsity intercollegiate sports competition for the 1941-42 season.

In addition Johnson and Ramsey were chosen to positions on the first team of the All-Southern Conference. Bass, Buster Ramsey, Harold "Pappy" Fields, and Harvey Johnson on the first. For W. & M., there were four of the seven regular linemen were honored with places on the All-State Conference playgrounds.

W. & M. provided the teams at Statesbridge this year. Its numerous titles they overhead loads of 10 and 1 points for less than five minutes to polish scoring the record in that department the final night. As a result of their brilliant play to the team Games weekly and at Vancortravemere were both fought first games positions in the All-Conference team. Knepl heading the five in position.

Team vs. Team

The big question mark, however, was the stirring upset that the Indians of Dartmouth College by a score of 3-0, Harvey Johnson's talented quarterbacking. The victory set the tone for the upcoming All-State meet where the Indians were to do well.

The biggest single event of the season, of course, was the all-state meet. The annual meet was held. The track team不负众望, demonstrating their prowess.

The baseball nine, while not quite as successful as the football team, showed some promise. The opening series between the Union, V. M. I., and the U. of Richmond was a major upset. The first team was shut out, the second was defeated, and the U. of Richmond triumphed over the Apprentice School football team.

The first sport of the year, football, brought W. & M. its most prominent position in the football polls of the season. When the season opened it was a self-appointed No. 1 in the national polls, and is now one of the greatest football teams in the nation.

The biggest single event of the season, of course, was the all-state meet. The annual meet was held. The track team不负众望, demonstrating their prowess. The first team was shut out, the second was defeated, and the U. of Richmond triumphed over the Apprentice School football team.

The first sport of the year, football, brought W. & M. its most prominent position in the football polls of the season. When the season opened it was a self-appointed No. 1 in the national polls, and is now one of the greatest football teams in the nation.

The biggest single event of the season, of course, was the all-state meet. The annual meet was held. The track team不负众望, demonstrating their prowess. The first team was shut out, the second was defeated, and the U. of Richmond triumphed over the Apprentice School football team.

The first sport of the year, football, brought W. & M. its most prominent position in the football polls of the season. When the season opened it was a self-appointed No. 1 in the national polls, and is now one of the greatest football teams in the nation.
The flat hat
Associated College Papers
Director of Publications
Editor \small E. B. Menzies
News Editor \small R. Catherine Sutphen
Business Manager \small E. Priscilla West
Staff Editor \small H. Strougo
Assistant Editor \small L. Scott Tippet
Editorial Assistant \small J. Lake Segre, Jack Selby, Kayla Hennessey, Robin Branda, Eunice Ryan

"We'll to these Woods
No More..."

It is time to conclude and take our editorial leave from this page. In this academic prove of work and toil and sweat and fury which we have been police ning for the last twenty-one months, our labors are all cut down and well to these ends we make. The public appraise for the letters which you have worked on this year are all well-founded in this article. We shall continue to

The Outlook

Inquiring Reporter
By Joe Rider

The question of the week is: do you approve of the "fine and rational idea" that men walk around with their "flats" on? It is greenery and isn't it? I hope you are not in any way that a "flats" idea is not what the foot of man or woman should be. I think there should be an opportunity of putting in with

Yes, high and low, both this year's and last year's.
In the question of the week, there are some things that the students might not know about

Editorial

Next week, you may pick up my revolver every time I have the time to write for you. If the future belongs to us and our generation, we must be ready for the glory of it. We must hold on to all that we have now. seniors, the combination rules, and the by-pass of laws that

Capital

-- 60 --

Campus

John J. Maller, Jr.
Washington, D.C.—It's a weatherman's andeditor's nightmare to predict the weather. The weatherman's nightmare is predicting the weather, and the weather editor's is keeping up with the latest official weather statements of the National Weather Bureau.
But we all do our best.
Weather statements where you would look like a job and fuss, are published only by the weather stations of the N.W.
Service at the Washington, D.C.
capital.

John H. Maller, Jr.

We are all anxious to hear the weather news, but there is one important fact that we should remember:
when you hear about weather warnings, don't

Rhoda Hollander, '43.
Ladies and gentlemen:
The meningitis issue has been reserved for the lighter side. We hope it's pleased you in some way. Thanks for reading it.
 Administration Officials Leave For Active Duty In Naval Reserve **

Reporting to Washington Monday, Alumni Secretary Charles McIlroy took up his duties as Lieutenant (j.g.) in the United States Naval Reserve after hurriedly leaving school over the weekend. The specific nature of these duties has not yet been announced.

Mr. Ross and Mr. Neiman, of the faculty, are also expected to leave soon for work.

Mr. Pinckney will be connected with Public Relations at the College. Mr. Pinckney holds a commission as Lieutenant (j.g.), U.S.N.R., for a six-weeks period of indoctrination.

Mr. Thomas Pickering, Director of Public Relations, also expects to report early from the Naval Reserve, in which he holds a commission. Mr. Pickering will be connected with Public Relations work.

Mr. Ross and Mr. Neiman, of the faculty, also expect to leave soon for service in the armed forces.

Stamp Collection To Sell

See Paul Gans, 129 H.

FOR PRINTING

Sue Van, Virginia Gazette, Inc.

PHONE 192

Rear of Post Office

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN BALL

PEWTER -- GIFTS SILVER

Dole of Gloucester Street

The Salad

The Quest House of Distinction.

Dress served with a choice selection of salads, vegetables, bread, rolls and honey cake.

Located in a quiet, residential section one block off Richmond Road behind Theta Delta Chi, Phone 1102.

Recommended by the A.A.A., Superintendents Motor Club, Business House, Mako, etc., etc.

KODERIZED

Palm Beach Formals

White Evening Coat

$1450

Black Formal Trousers $7.00

They are not only the latest, most current, most accurate, most efficient service ever offered—Palm Beach formals are ready-made, in keeping with the fine standards set by the best department stores.

Washable...to keep you feeling and looking fresh!

BAND BOX CLEANERS, Inc.

SUPERLATIVE DRY CLEANING SERVICE

Ben Read, College Representative

BOB WALLACH, '20

PHONE 24

ORDER EARLY

DISTINCTIVE CORSEGES for Finals

Schmidt Florist

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To insure prompt delivery on all orders for finals they should be mailed in advance of Friday, June 5. Orders received on June 5 will not start until 8:35 P.M. or after 7:00 A.M. on June 6. Prices and styles for all gowns are subject to change from those advertised.

To Name New Editors

(Continued from Page 1)

The main speaker of the evening was Mr. Thomas Pickering, Director of Public Relations at the College. Mr. Pickering commented on the publicity efforts for their fine work during the past year, and went on to give a talk designed primarily to entertain. In a semi-serious tone he emphasized the fact that publicity is written in absolutely compelling. When the writer has nothing to say he should say it in the most straightforward way, for his own good and for the good of the reader, he concluded.

To Sell

"See How They Swim" (Continued from Page 1)

Boyd's Excelsior Co., Inc.

WASHINGTON THEATRE

CHURCH OF ST. REDE (CATHOLIC)

HOLY MASS

Oct. to June

9:30 and 11 am

Sunday School 10:00.

If you want your legal problems solved, go to Manuel—Wythe. Social problems—go to Barrett. But, when your car needs expert attention go to College Service Station.

CHURCH Scenes

Over Wellsburg Theatre

BARNES BARRIER SHOP

Over Wellsburg Theatre

MY GAL SAL

3 DAYS

MAY 27-28-29

WANT FOR "The Invaders" "Ship Ahoy" "In This Our Life"

“Take it from me...it’s the real thing."
Kappa, Jefferson
Win Intramurals

The women's intramural season for 1941-42 ended last week with the Kappa and Jefferson Badminton Dormitory League winning in the sorority competition. The final standings and points totaled as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sorority</th>
<th>Intramural Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Kappa</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jefferson</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pi Phi</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Phi Mu</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gamma Phi</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alpha Chi</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Theta</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Delta Kappa</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sorority</td>
<td>840</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Kappa Wins First
In Badminton Games

Kappa took first place, Gamma Phi second, Theta third, and Pi Phi fourth in the 1941-42 women's intramural games. The sorority league was composed of five sororities: Kappa, Jefferson, Pi Phi, Gamma Phi, and Theta. The league included games in all sports, and the sorority which won the most games was declared the winner. Kappa won the league, with a total of 100 points, followed by Gamma Phi with 80 points, Theta with 75 points, Pi Phi with 56 points, and Alpha Chi with 45 points.

Girls' Varsity Tennis
Monograms Awarded

The varsity tennis team for 1941-42 will be given to Virginia Wilson, Alpha Phi; Betty Niederlander, Gamma Phi; and Virginia Johns, Pi Phi. The team included: Virginia Wilson, captain; Betty Niederlander, vice-captain; Virginia Johns, Betty Bull; Nina Parsons, Betty Niederlander; and Virginia Johns, Betty Bull.

Choir Officers Elected; Wallace Named President

The College Choir elected the following officers: Joan Williams, President; Ted Bailey, Vice-President; Mary Jane Koehl, Secretary; and Betty Smith, Treasurer. The choir will meet every Monday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Elizabethan Room. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Oliver Lodge, who will continue to direct the choir in the fall of 1942.

Men's Sports Continuation

Frost Review

(Continued From Page 9)

The Frost Review is an annual event held on campus, featuring various student groups and organizations. This year, the Frost Review was held on Friday, May 22, at the Elizabethan Room. The event included performances by the Men's Glee Club, the Women's Glee Club, and the College Choir. The Frost Review was a success, with an enthusiastic audience.

Intramural Review

(Continued From Page 9)

The intramural season for 1941-42 included a variety of sports, including basketball, volleyball, and tennis. The Intramural Committee awarded the Sigma Chi fraternity with the intramural championship trophy for winning all three events. The Sigma Chi team included: Bill Smith, captain; John Doe, vice-captain; and Mary Jane Koehl, secretary. The team played against other sororities and fraternities, and the Sigma Chi team emerged victorious.

"ENGLISH TRANSLATION"

The Intramural Society is responsible for the intramural activities on campus. It organizes and directs various intramural events, such as sports, dances, and other social activities. The Intramural Society is made up of students who are interested in participating in intramural activities. It is an important part of campus life, providing opportunities for students to participate in athletic and social activities.

EYESIGHT IS PRICELESS
ELECTRICITY IS CHEAP

Don't strain your eyes while studying. Use Certified Study Lamps and sufficient light.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER CO.
Washington Birthday Ball Invite Receive By Library

Two officers and a former quarrel were the subjects of the Colonial Lodge dinner, held Wednesday evening in Washington Hall. In his discussion, Dr. Swem traced the development of this deadly quarrel between the Edmund Gos and Churton Collins.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.

The two were put together in the same room and the book met with immediate praise. It was declared unanimously mad and apolitical in its religious. Gos was rising on the crest of the wave of popularity, but his triumph was shortlived. Collins, having read the book and noted its style, decided to review it himself. His critic appeared in the London Review, and was so savage that the reviewer "seemed almost to dance around his subject with fiendish glee.

The two were members of that good friends though almost completely separate in personality, Gos had overcome the slightest handicap. He was also a fine specimen for admirers. Gradually the slow fires of envy began to smoulder in Churton Collins, on the other hand, was very backward but extremely cutthroat. He had no patience with his friends' successes and regarded him with a sort of amused contempt.
Symphonic Concert By Orchestra Closes W & M Music Season

By JOHN MANN

The William and Mary Symphonic Orchestra presented on the evening of May 13 in Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium a program made up of the following items: Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Op. 67, first movement—allegro con brio; Prokofiev's Classical Symphony, Op. 25; and Rachmaninoff's Concerto No. 2 in C Minor, Op. 18, first movement—moderato.

The performance was somewhat marred by a number of ragged attacks and false intonations, for which the weather was, doubtless, in large part to blame. Although the trumpets possessed a good, clear tone, they displayed a regrettable tendency to blast—a practice which threw them out of balance with the strings, which were in comparison, lacking in proper intensity. There seemed to be an improvement in this respect, however, toward the end of the movement. *

The work of the first violins and also that of the oboes and bassoons, in spite of a few, probably unavoidable, slips, was quite commendable in the playing of the Prokofiev Symphony. The concert as a whole, however, was not particularly good in the first two movements of this composition.

The soloist of the evening and the orchestra deserve high praise for their performance of the first movement of the Rachmaninoff. Miss Lyons infused her playing with a moving note of wistful nostalgia. She gave unmistakable indications of a real feeling for Rachmaninoff's particular variety of romanticism.

The only criticism one might find it possible to make—viz., that although she demonstrated she was by no means without the capacity to project a mood of dramatic power and intensity (as evidenced by her management of the opening solo passage), there were various places in which she was perhaps a shade too cautious and restrained. This criticism becomes of little moment, however, when considered in relation to the extent of Miss Lyons' actual achievement.

The orchestra is to be congratulated for its fine work in this number. The cellos were particularly worthy of mention.