President Bryan Picks New Special Defense Committee

Group To Adjust College Activities To Draft Program

President John Stewart Bryan has approved a resolution which calls for the appointment of a special committee to study the adjustment of college activities to the draft program.

The committee, which will be appointed by President Bryan, will study the effects of the draft program on the college and will make recommendations to the president on how the college can best adjust its activities to accommodate the draft requirements.

The committee will consist of representatives from various departments and will be chaired by Dean Miller, the director of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Ambulance Art Exhibit Raises $1033

The ambulance art exhibit, which opened last week, has raised $1033 for the ambulance fund. The exhibit features artwork by students and faculty members, all of whom have donated their works to support the ambulance fund.

The exhibit will continue until May 16 and is open to the public.

SYMPHONIC BAND TO GIVE SECOND CONCERT MAY 15

The symphonic band will give its second concert on May 15, in the gym. The concert will feature the band's usual repertoire of classical music, as well as some modern compositions.

The concert will be conducted by Dr. Donald Remick, the director of the band.

MUSIC STUDENTS PRESENT OWN RELICT SUNDAY

The music students will present their own recital on Sunday afternoon, May 15. The recital will feature works by Beethoven, Mozart, and other classical composers.

The recital will be held in the chapel, and admission is free to the public.

William And Mary Orchestra Present Their First Concert

The William and Mary Orchestra will present their first concert on May 15. The concert will feature works by Beethoven, Mozart, and other classical composers.

The concert will be conducted by Dr. Donald Remick, the director of the orchestra.

Taxation To Be Subject Of M.W. Seminar Speech

Dr. Irving Fisher, Professor of Political Economy, will deliver a seminar speech on taxation on May 16. The speech will be held in the chapel, and admission is free to the public.

The seminar speech will be part of a series of lectures on various economic topics.

DARING YOUNG MAN...

PLAY Written By U.S. Egoist Number One

For their first production of the year, the Players will present "My Heart's In the Highlands," a play written by U.S. Egoist.

The play will be performed in the chapel on May 15 and 16, and admission is free to the public.

The play is a romantic comedy set in Scotland, and follows the adventures of a young man who falls in love with a beautiful Scottish woman.

"My Heart's In the Highlands" is directed by Tim Teal and is the first production of the new Players Club.

The Players Club is a group of William and Mary students who are interested in theater and performing arts.

New Boathouse Spring Vacation Assembly Topics

At the April 30 meeting of the Student Assembly, the assembly approved the following topics for the spring vacation assembly: boathouse, new party, and new elections.

Professor Paul Gantt will deliver the boathouse speech, discussing the construction of the new boathouse.

Professor Mary Witty will address the new party topic, discussing the importance of being involved in the party's activities.

Professor John Green will deliver the new elections speech, discussing the importance of participating in the elections and voting for the candidates of your choice.

New Parties Share Close Race

At the Second Annual Meeting of the Student Assembly on May 1, the following parties were elected to the Student Assembly: Republican, Democratic, and Prohibition.

The Republican Party won the closest race, with only a few votes separating the candidates.

ALMA MATER SONG

"My Heart's In the Highlands" will be sung at the May Day assembly.

"My Heart's In the Highlands" is a popular Scottish song, and is often sung at Scottish festivities.

The song will be performed by the William and Mary Glee Club.

Randolph-Macon Scores 3-1 Triumph Over Tribe At Ashland

Cinderlens Nosed Out By Richmond 68-53

Tucker, with an injured back, was unable to return to action after being knocked down in the first period. He was replaced by John Smith, who scored two points before being forced to retire with a sprained ankle.

Richmond Beats Freshmen 6 to 3

Chester Bourne, University of Richmond freshman pitcher, stood up as a standout for the Cavaliers. He was able to get the Tribe on their toes with his quick pitching.

Four Seniors

Four seniors will take center stage in this weekend's matches. They are: Jack Warner, a standout in singles; Harlie Masters, a star in doubles; Dick Sills, a consistent player; and Harry Maisch, who has been a reliable member of the team for several years.

Richmond By John Hollis

The Tribe will meet Virginia at the University of Virginia on April 24. The game will be played on the diamond at 3:00 PM.
TIME TO PAY TRIBUTE

W. W. & B. A.

As the current college year draws to a close,我们应该 seize the moment and give our appreciation to all the people who contribute to the success of our sports programs. The contributions of our athletes, coaches, and support staff are vital to our球队的成功。同时，我们也应该对那些为大学体育事业做出贡献的人表示感谢，尤其是那些为大学体育事业做出贡献的人。他们不仅在比赛中表现出色，而且在场外也为我们提供了支持和激励。

The announcement of the establishment of a coaching position in the department of physical education is a significant development. This move highlights the school's commitment to providing a comprehensive and inclusive sports program. It also serves as a testament to the school's dedication to the well-being of its students and the importance of physical activity in their lives.

In addition to the establishment of a coaching position, the school has also made efforts to improve the facilities available to our athletes. The recent renovation of the sports complex has significantly enhanced the student experience and provided a more conducive environment for training and competition. We are grateful for the school's commitment to investing in our sports programs.

The school has also made strides in promoting diversity and inclusivity within its athletic programs. The recent hiring of a diversity officer reflects the school's commitment to creating a more welcoming and equitable environment for all athletes. This move is in line with the school's broader mission of fostering a community that values diversity and acknowledges the importance of inclusive practices.

In conclusion, the school's efforts to improve its athletic programs and facilities, as well as its commitment to diversity and inclusivity, reflect its dedication to providing a positive and supportive environment for our students. We are grateful for the school's efforts and look forward to continued progress in the realm of sports and physical education.

INQUIRING REPORTER

"I'd like to talk about first base in order to forget the worse coming before them," says Henry Hertig, Jr.

"It would be a good idea to do the same," slaps the kleenex box, "the drizzle has been plentiful of late."

"It is almost my way," says the first base to the others, "my name is Henry Hertig, and I have just joined the team."

"I know what you mean," says the third baseman, "I have been with the team for a while now."

"Oh, really?" says Henry Hertig, Jr., "by the way, what happened to your college?"
