VARSA SHOW WILL OPEN TOMORROW

By NORRISQUE R. DESTRUCT

Varsity show production Carry Me Back will be presented at the Backdrop Club tonight at 10:30. Eight women and 12 men will form the cast of the show, which will be presented at the Wren Building on Monday, May 17.

The show is based on the popular song written by Richard Beatty, who has been selected as the Exeter Scholar from Williams and Mary to attend the University of Exeter of the West, Exeter, England. The show opens under the sponsorship of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, which claims a notable alumni record.

Richard Beatty, a 24-year-old graduate from Carnegie Institute of Technology, was selected as Exeter Scholar from Williams and Mary. Cafeteria Milk

The recent changes in the cafeteria situation has caused a controversial comment around campus.

Dr. Pomfret, the manager of Oakdale Dairy, the Flat Hat has anterviewed concerning the cafeteria situation. In fairness to all parties, the manager of Oakdale, Dr. Pomfret, informed that Pretty Woman is the principal supplier of milk for the cafeteria. There are several other milk producers, but Pretty Woman is the main supplier. Dr. Pomfret also mentioned that the cafeteria has a choice of two milk producers, and Pretty Woman is the preferred one. The cafeteria has the option to switch to another milk producer if Pretty Woman is not able to supply the required amount of milk.

Kovaleski Defeats Seixas Twice, Wins Singles

William and Mary's tennis Indian troubles Northern Carolina, 3-1, yesterday afternoon to finish off an undefeated season and thereby win their fourth straight Southern Conference title. The victory snapped a 23-match streak of the Tar Heels and gave the Indians the net title on the basis of percentage.

But the big story yesterday was Williams's report win. Dick Seixas of Virginia Tech, who had never before won a match against the Indians, battled back and forth to give the Tar Heels a chance. However, the big shot was too much for the Tar Heels, and they were defeated 6-0.

The victory was number 74 on the record streak of the Indians, and marked the completion of their fourth straight undefeated season.

The Indians' overall record of 17-1-3 is the best in the history of the program. Williams and Kovaleski are two of the greatest tennis players. His record is phenomenal. The Indians have had a history of great tennis players, not only Kovaleski and Seixas, but also others.

Braves Top Tar Heels, 8-2, For Southern Team Crown

Fred Kovaleski added another victory to his name yesterday when he defeated V. S. Kassam, the Ontario, 6-0, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1. Kovaleski is the only player in the country who has won both the Southern Conference and the Southeastern Conference championships.

Kovaleski's victory was one of the most important of the season, as it brought the Indians one step closer to the championship. The Indians are currently in the third place position, tied with VPI, and drawn with W&L.

The victory was a hard-fought one, as Kovaleski had to work hard to win the match. He was up early in the first set, but was forced to fight back in the second set. However, he was able to close out the match with a hard-fought victory, and the Indians are now one step closer to the championship.

The Indians' overall record of 17-1-3 is the best in the history of the program. Williams and Kovaleski are two of the greatest tennis players. His record is phenomenal. The Indians have had a history of great tennis players, not only Kovaleski and Seixas, but also others.
undated Lambda Chi was assured of winning the intramural football championship this past week when Pi KA and Sigma Rho each suffered their second defeat. In the independent league, the Canadian Clubbers captured their first place at the weeeks end.

Thompson To Play With All-Stars

Tommy Thompson, one of the greatest of the centers to come out of the South, will play on the college all-star college gridiron team, and will give the fans something of a comparison of the relative abilities of the rising centers.

The two Ramseys are among the top college football centers, while Thompson appears to be one of the best of the professional guards.

Women's Wiles

By Dolores Heutte

Looking back along the line— it's always easier to find fault with what has been done and to say what should have been done. Actually this is not such a bad position, if one has the future in mind and the criticism is about constructive times.

Although much has been done at William and Mary to further woman's sports in general and varsity sports in particular, there's still some room for improvement. It might be said in passing, however, that William and Mary has progressed much further along these paths than most of the schools in the state. A partial proof of this fact to the leadership which has been assumed in the Virginia A.C.W.O. by our alma mater.

A rather singular lack of enthusiasm for varsity sports has been evidenced this year on the part of the women students. This is true particularly of the two upper classes. There are reasons given for this rather apathetic attitude. One of the primary ones, or at least the one that seems to be voiced the most, is the lack of sufficient time to devote to the particular sport. It is granted that many students are pressed for time, but the understandings who do participate seem able to find time. A further reason given for the apathy is the financial support given the various varsity teams will show that most of the players are drawn from the freshman and sophomore classes.

But it does not seem possible that the element of time is the real cause for the lack of participation and interest in women's sports. Why does it happen that these women who start out so enthusiastically in their freshman year seem to lose interest with each succeeding year? The underlying reason for this rather strange phenomenon is the lack of interest and support on the part of the student body as a whole. It hardly seems worthwhile to spend the time and energy in practices and in planning when no one seems to care anyway.

But there's always next year! Perhaps the story will be different.

Tennis

One won four games in the last set before dropping a 6-4 decision and losing the championship Krov-eshov and Terry Hartman had won last spring.

Bill O'Donnell was the only oth­er Webb player to go as far as the quarterfinals. He defeated Weissers of Duke to enter the tour­nament.

Lyman Chennault had given a free account of himself in losing to McMaster's of Duke in three sets and Jim McCall gave himself some scones moments before dropping a two-set decision to him.

Realizing that students must have somewhere to go if the evening, the parties at Curry University will be open nightly.

High School Track Aces To Gather For State Meet Here This Weekend

One of the favorites will be Newport News High School, win­ner of the Tidewater Meet here in April and undefeated in other competition. The Typhoon, coach­ed by Julie Conn, constantly turns out strong teams and has been a frequent winner during the past 15 years.

Among the outstanding per­formers to be on hand are Shirley Jones, great mile and half mile runner; Albert Schnettler and Doug Mitchell, ace high jumper of Newport News.

Jones is the intercollegiate indi­vidual marathon champion. He and Phil Stephenson of Newport News may put on a good show in the mile and 880. Mitchell jumped 6 feet 5 3/4 inches in the Tidewater meet for the best performance in the state in any competition this year.

Finals are scheduled for Sat­urday, with the various running pre­liminaries getting underway Fri­day.

Twenty-one schools are expect­ed to enter the meet. They are: Cavalier, Gregsby, Ham­pton, Newport News, Noland, Westover, Hopewell, John Mar­shall, Petersburg, Thomas Jeff­erson, Fairlax, George Washington of Alexandria, Lane, Mount Ver­non, Washington and Lee, Andrew Lewis, L. E. Clark, Leon, Washing­ton of Danville, Jefferson Sen­ior of Roanoke and Woodrow Wil­son.

Squaw Netters Topple Westhampton
For Initial Victory With 3-2 Decision

William and Mary's female netters came through Saturday, May 14, with a 3-2 decision over Westhampton College.

Ruth Barnes, playing in the number one singles spot, had little trouble taking it in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-3, over Sidlousky of the Richmond team. As for the number two singles, Elinor Hanson scraped out a 7-5 victory in the first set and then settled down to take the second one 6-2.

Little Jane Copeland engaged in a marathon with Meg Knapp with the Richmonder coming out on top, 6-4, 5-7 and 6-3. In the number one doubles competition, Laura Lowe and Dolores Hentle last out 7-5 and 6-4 to Dow and Freddie of Westhampton.

Marion Hough and Peg Harmon, the number two doubles partners, came through with a decisive 6-1, 6-2 victory over Grabeel and Carpenter.

This is the first win of the season for the locals. A tentative match has been scheduled for Friday, May 20, with the Town Women.

Kliever Broadcasts Over WVEC

By Jane Waters

Every afternoon from three to five on radio station WVEC there's a program called Baseball Scoreboard. It's a combination of baseball scores and disc jockey music, and when they're playing, the Dodger baseball games are broadcast. The announcer is Duff Kliever, director of sports and special events of WVEC and day student at the College of William and Mary.

Kliever, who lives in Newport News, is a junior majoring in business and a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Fighter Pilot

Explaining his interest in radio work, he said, "I started out in radio at a radio workshop in Colorado Springs at the age of 11 and continued in it through high school." During a five-and-a-half year stretch in the army, Kliever was a fighter pilot; with the end of the war, he did sports and special events work in connection with public relations for the army. Once, while detained in Daharan, Saudi Arabia, Kliever ran a disc jockey show for two weeks. "It was the hottest disc jockey show in the world as far as I was concerned... the temperature stayed around 120 degrees!"

Directs Special Events

During his 10 months at the Hampton station, Kliever has done a 15-minute sports broadcast, the Sport Spot Light and a disc jockey spot. As director of special events, he covers such functions as the Hampton Sea Food Festival, the christening of the Newport News, the Hampton Regents and last summer, covered a moon-over-the-street broadcast.

"WVEC hopes to go full time; in the event they do, I feel there's a good future in sports and special events. At any rate I want to stay in public relations work," Kliever stated.

"I have 2000 boys, you know," he said, and then explained that he is director of the Peninsula Knothole Club, an organization which provides free admission to the Newport News Dodgers' home games for the boys. "Aside from that, I spend my spare time writing radio commercials," he concluded.

R. Harvey Chappell Edits Law Review

The distribution of the second issue of the William and Mary Review of Virginia Law is almost complete, according to an announcement by R. Harvey Chappell, Jr., editor of the Review.

The Review, a student publication, is devoted to giving jurisprudence students an opportunity for written expression on legal subjects and to stimulating their interest in significant trends in the law. The articles and comments will discuss current legal problems in Virginia and thus will provide the lawyers of the state with an up-to-date summary and critique of Virginia law as it is developing.

Donald H. Sandie and Edgar K. Wells Jr., have written the notes for this issue, the Review's second, and case comments have been authored by Sidney Schwartz, Walter Coder, Jr., Stanley H. Merriwitz, Frederick B. Price and John M. Holtz.

The Review has been printed through the generosity of the Friends of the College.

In keeping with the purpose of the "GOOD NEIGHBOR FLEET" Moore-McCormack Lines offers

SPECIAL REDUCTIONS

for STUDENTS and TEACHERS

in 38-Day Cruise and Round-Trip Fares to SOUTH AMERICA

Also Special 2-Week and 4-Week Stopover Arrangements

"Good Neighbor" service by the S. S. BRAZIL, S. S. URUGUAY and S. S. ARGENTINA was originally established to stimulate better acquaintance with the lands and peoples of South America. This summer’s cruise is in keeping with that purpose—designed to make it easier for students and teachers from the United States to visit the nations of our great sister continent.

The special reduction will be made available only to those who supply credentials of eligibility and will apply to minimum First Class accommodations and Cabin Class accommodations only. It will be offered through the Summer vacation period, and to members of the teaching profession on submission of proof of employment by the end of the school year.

In addition to applying to 38-Day Cruise, special arrangements will also be offered with 2 and 4-week stopovers. Arrangements permit 2-stopover cruises at any South American port or at two 2-week stopovers at different ports; all-inclusive rates including hotel accommodations for the stopover period are available.

From Dormitory Residents

Daily Mail

Dear Dean:

I am writing to ask for permission to allow my roommate, Mary Johnson, to travel to Buenos Aires for the holiday season. She is very interested in history and culture, and I think it would be a wonderful opportunity for her to experience South America firsthand. She has saved money throughout the year and would like to take advantage of this special reduction offered by Moore-McCormack Lines.

Sincerely,

John Smith
