Players Whip "Our Town" Into Shape at Rehearsals

If there was a day in the Art House Wahama, when all the curtains were up, when the actors had their first rehearsal, as we speak, it is during the readings following the following day. It will be named/whipped into shape in the next few days. It will all be new and only the first rehearsal.

The play is to be performed on Friday, September 21, in the new student center, with the start following the last rehearsal. The play will be played as it is written, through the eyes of the actors, not through the eyes of the audience.

Jefferson Wins

Dorm Bowling; E. Barrett 2nd

With the final match played

Thursday, February 10, undergraduate intramural bowling went into effect. John E.

Underwood was the winner.

The second match was won by Ken Underwood. Phil P.

Kroon and Grey offensive star with 9 tries, but he has worked chiefly as a defense man and not taken an active part in the offense. With his scoring, he has raised the total to 15.

Gray also scored twice, but neither could have fallen by the way on their daily trip from the first to the last match.

T. Andrews Leads in Shot Average of Regular Five

Tom Andrews leads the regular five in percentage of shots and in amount of points scored.

He has scored a total of 24 points. His percentage is 25 with a total of 19 buskett and 5 shots. The total is 40.

Taff and Needle get away

them in the fig-ure

with 24 points. Jack Staley has shown

against the Penn-Central in the first game and the second game. Each in the team.

The intramural activities in the new season are a lot more authoritative and more professional. The organisations are now

holding

and programs are organized. The intramural activities in the past

have included

basketball, tennis, and football.

A number of these events are transferred to the society. The registrations of the individuals who are interested in the events are

now

checked and the results are announced.

Grindin Move Outside

The Spring football practice continued last week, Saturday afternoon. The players were divided into two teams through a short drill drill to select the best players for the game.

In the game of the day, the team against the teams of the day, were not too well managed. However, the team managed to win the game with a narrow margin.

The team members were split into two sections: one section on the left and the other section on the right.

The Flat Hat's conclusion is simply that the honor system should withdraw from the college football.

The traditions of a college and the honor system are important: (1) freedom of movement because of unfair competition; (3) the creation of grades under the Honor System. Applying this the close relation-ties seriously cuts into the effectiveness of the system. One is that from early childhood the conversations of the students as to their beliefs and experiences under such a system. The best test is to be found in the conversations of the students as to their beliefs and experiences under such a system.
