Politics To Blaze Into Open Debate This Friday Night In Phi Beta; Fraternities Sweep First Election

TAP SERVICES OF HONOR SOCIETIES This Morning At 11 In Phi Beta
Morton Board and O.D.K. tap services will be held at 11:00 a.m. today at a Convocation in Phi Beta Kappa Hall, resulting in the election of the following new members for their societies for this year:

Morton Board, women's honor society, is headed this year by Mrs. Cecile Churchill. The members are chosen primarily for their qualifications of leadership as exemplified by their successful co-operation in their activities.

Guilford Delta Kappa, women's honor society, is headed this year by Miss Elizabeth T. Goodlow. The members are chosen primarily for their qualifications of leadership as exemplified in their activities and for their scholastic attainments.

The Covenant, social society, is headed this year by Miss Joann B. Culver. The members are chosen primarily for their qualifications of leadership as exemplified in their activities and their scholastic attainments.

War Correspondent Speaks At Seminar
One of the better-known war correspondents and authors of the day, Franch Utley, will speak on "The Problems of Democracy in a World of War" on the next Friday-Western Seminar, on April 30 at 4:00 in Swem Library. Miss Utley is well qualified to discuss on this subject, having lived in France from 1930 to 1936, and having written several books concerning the world activities.

Born in Manchester in 1886, Miss Utley moved to New York as a small child, was graduated from Miss Porter's School, and received her B.S. degree at Bryn Mawr. She is now the chairman of the Advisory Council of the Library Committee of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia University.

Mr. Utley is the author of several notable works on France and the French, among which are "Outside of France," "Me 11" but two of his, "1917," "After the Battle," and "Than Hell." He received his B.S. degree at Bryn Mawr.

The following reference is on reserve in the library for students of the Seminar:

"The Trouble," Thomas mechanism, has a membership chosen on a basis of scholarship, scholastic attainments, co-operative spirit, and literary society work.

The Covenant will be formed, class being excused for the hour extending from 25 to 26 of April.

Panhellenic Constitution Reorganized; Rushing To Take Place In Late November

Good Will Among Sororities Will Be Promoted By Fall Reunion

A new rushing system, a whole new set of sorority rushing rules, a faculty-administered formal reception, exchange dinners, revision of the William and Mary Panhellenic Constitution—these are just some of the activities carried on and forwarded in the past year by the William and Mary Panhellenic Administration Council, one of the most important behind-the-scenes organizations on campus. The members of this council are representatives elected by the individual sororities.

March Of Time

Movie Will Show W & M Students

The scene taken at the College on Wednesday afternoon, April 30, illustrated how the film "March of Time," in the state steps of the Bruton Parish Church. Other students sat on the grass and watched the film. The Bruton Parish version of the picture will probably be shown in Williamsburg before the end of the school year. The film contains features of the section will be shown.

Unusual Gift Received

By College Library

An unusual gift to the College Library was received last Tuesday, April 28. The gift is a photograph of Madame Curie, given to the library by Dr. Pierre Macy, a member of the College of William and Mary, who is conducting a course in the hotel.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL FOR 1941-2

UNAVOYMENT TO COLLEGE FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES 17-19

You want to serve your country? Why not serve where your college training will do the most good?

Under the Navy’s newest plan, you can enlist right now. You don’t have to complete your college work until you receive your commission and qualify to become a Navy Officer—on the same pay as the for the in the service.

Who may qualify

If you are between the ages of 17 and 19 you may enlist in the U.S. Navy to enter the Naval Officer Training School. You will be in the Navy, but you may remain in college, taking regular college courses under your college program until you receive your commission. The training will consist of mathematics, physics and physical training. After you have successfully completed 15 calendar years of work, you will be given a classification test. This examination is competitive. It is designed to select the best men for training as Navy Officers.

How to become an Officer

If you qualify by telling the test and can meet the necessary physical standards, you will have a chance to become an officer. You may then volunteer for training as an Aviation Officer, and, if you pass the necessary tests, you will be placed in the Aviation Officer Program. You will be permitted to take the Aviation Officer Program and will then be given the privilege of taking the Aviation examiner. Applicants who fail to qualify in any of the above examinations will be given another chance to qualify and will be given another chance to qualify.

"Hedda Gabler" Presentation Mistakes Intent Of Author

By Bill Diamond

The public is too unsure of the sensuous ordeal which is imposed upon the dramatic critic during the course of the dramatic season. The events from similar to theater, the effect pulling of the crowd, and the displaying attitudes of directors, playwrights, actors, and critics are a good enough reason for the writer to make the most of the above-mentioned capabilities. This was the case with

No Decision On Recent Debate, Cup Debate Soon

William and Mary's women's debate team began the spring debate season last Saturday. The question under discussion was: "Is a proper place for women in the Senate?"

The debate was held in the Little Theatre. About a hundred people filled the theatre in the early hours of the morning, and the room was crowded by noon. The debate was followed by a luncheon at the Flach's Banquet Hall.

The debate was opened by Dr. J. M. Conwell, professor of political science, who introduced the topic. He spoke on the importance of women's participation in the political process.

The first speaker was Miss Mary Taylor, who argued in favor of women's participation in the Senate. She emphasized the need for diversity in the Senate and the importance of women's perspective.

The second speaker was Mr. John Smith, who argued against women's participation in the Senate. He believed that women's views would not be represented in the Senate and that the Senate would become too female.

The debate was followed by a luncheon at the Flach's Banquet Hall.

Mural Exhibit Shows Modern Trends In American Art-Romanticism, Realism

Contest Winners Are Announced.

Three of the most successful designs in paintings were hung up in scale. Not fulfilling the requirements are not really murals. A mural design must express the architecture of the space it is to occupy. It should carry out ambition in the foyer of Williamsburg Theatre, dressed splendidly to usher in the new season.

The above mural, by Manuel Roodenberg, is at present exhibited in the foyer of 568 South Main Street as part of the State Mural Exhibition. It was designed for the Greybull, Wyoming, Post Office.
