Student Assembly Plans First Forum
On Cafeteria Issue

Acting on the results of the recent cafeteria referendum and the Debate Council have announced plans for a forum on January 5 at 6:30 p.m. in Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium.

The topic for the meeting will be the cafeteria. Of the 650 students participating in the referendum, 52 percent voted against the cafeteria, a figure much greater than the first three choices.

In a letter dated December 9, John Dayton, president of the student body, wrote Charles J. Duke, chairman of the senate, and explained the purpose of the meeting as "a means of public expression on the major problems and issues of our college community to every individual and group within the community."

Duke was requested to present "a comprehensive explanation of the viewpoint of the Student Assembly." He requested the administration to present a similar summary from the student viewpoint, and the meeting will be open to questions, criticisms, and resolutions from the floor.

According to Lester D. Longman, the student body at-large polled said they would attend such a meeting.

The town meeting grew out of a plan proposed by Dayton at the student council in November. It is planned to hold several such meetings each semester, to bring the college community to be discussed to the student body, the Senate, and the Debate Council are concerned with the town meeting project.

Dayton closed his letter to Duke by saying, "It is the hope and expectation of the Student Governing Council that the town meetings will prove a means by which imaginary problems and real problems of our college community may be solved.

The meeting will be "Come As You Are," meaning that everyone is supposed to appear at the dinner dressed exactly as they were when they were invited.

An award will be given to the couple voted the most originally dressed.

After hearing a report from freshman treasurer, to the effect that the junior class had only $7.70 on hand, the class voted to levy dues on February 1, and the class voted to levy dues on February 1, and the class voted to levy dues on February 1, and the class voted to levy dues on February 1.

A suggestion was made at the meeting, held Thursday night, that the student body, chairman of the Debate Council, declared the point system, evaluating officers held by students and limiting students to 17 points is to be discontinued in favor of a revised system, pending final ratification by the General Co-operative Committee, chairman of the debates.

The other amendment was concerned with the duties and powers of the new Committee on Campus Organizations.

John Dayton, president of the student body, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, president of the Junior Class Council, of the Women's Co-operative Committee; and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.

In his amendment, Dayton recommended that the point system be classified as either major or minor, according to the importance of the job and its time requirements, with no student being allowed to have more than one major office at one time.

Chaplain Keimling was class president, and the college president, declared the point system to be impractical because of its inflexibility and because the impossibility of correctly determining the point values of the dozens of campus offices.
Merry Christmas To You All!

By Jeannette Keimling and Mary Jo Flint

Since no time bombs have been left in the P. R. office, we decided to try again and this time we have got enough to come out under our own colors (also Bailey paid the printer). Look, Ma, we get a by-line. While we’ve suggested that all you kiddies save page 2 or 3 for the Restoration of smiles on campus this week is more intelligent friends who can explain things that have gone on in the last year. The high point of the season seemed to be when these faculty members (now quite drunk) showed their way through the public thesauruses. These actions, it was said, gained for the college a bad name. Yes, as we said things aren’t changed much.

Swimming meets aren’t as dull as you think they are. Sigma Chi is doing its best to see that of the 14 men entered in tonight’s Intramurals, 9 swam, 2 finished, and 1 lost his towel. To quote one of the brothers, “The only thing we had in the pool was a lasso.” Ah, but don’t forget the drunks (freudian slip—we mean people). The Yuletide Ditty.

Before we go we’d like to dispense a little Merry Christmas.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Louise Bailey—Our Editor-in-Chief.

To John McKean.

To Dr. Southworth, Princeton—his flight is much appreciated copy of last week’s Looking Glass.

To John Dayton—an auto-mug.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.

To Robert L. Manett.

To Jane Hali.

To Frances Jewell.

To Frank J. Lausche—He wants to pardon Eaches who is now serving a ten to 25 year sentence for armed robbery.

To Editor Pat Stringham—a young lady that you can play sheep with.

To Bill Nary, Ed Wisbauer.

To Jan Walser.
By Jim David

Indians To Clash With Top Intersectional Teams
Basketballers To Hit Road; Will Play In Three States

During the inter-division period, from December 1-15, the Tribe basketball team will be on the road, bringing back a test of skill against the top teams in the country to; Maryland. The first of the eight games in this period is with John Carroll University on Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. in the William and Mary Arena.

The priests have a mark of 23 wins and 7 losses (their best season for many years). Last year they won 16 games and dropped 13. Municipal Stadium in N.Y. is the home of the Fordham Rams. The Orangemen, the Redmen have never been a team to go down without a fight. Last year, the Rams gave the varsity two very good games.

But the biggest test for this young and promising team will come when they meet with Michigan State College on Dec. 16, which is expected to provide rough competition and a possible defeat on North Carolina on Dec. 19. The Wolfpack will be led by the remarkable annual performance of Wake Forest's Num. Smith. The Blue Devils are that this year's Blue Devil tank. North Carolina's All-American selection to the William and Mary All-East team, picked by the Associated Press. Michigan State's shifty tackle, Brett McCullough, is expected to be a single vote in the balloting.

The other teams for consideration are: Arkansas, Hayes, N.C State, Michigan State, and Pittsburgh players.

In addition, the Tribesmen took honors as Most Outstanding Back, coming out Justin, while Calhoun made the Most Outstanding Linebacker and龃s missed a sweep when Gregus edged out景点 for the Blue-Gray Game and the All-Stars, as the College All-Stars against the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

Cloud breaks through in All-Star game.

Cloud, stellar tailback for the Blue-Gray game, broke through against Wake Forest's defense for the All-Stars, as they jumped back in the second half to whip the pros 21-6.}

Cloud expects to be ready to play when the Blue-Gray game rolls around on December 31. He will play in the same role as the team last year in the Wake Forest game.

Rainforests have a three-way tie with LYTH and Forest and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.

All-Americans

Many of the members of the first eleven were named on one or both of the All-Americans teams this fall for their fine play.

Players of second team also include Red O'Connell of W&M, forests, and Bix of Arkham, West Virginia, and D.C. for their fine play. The backfield was composed of the pro Charles Collins. Cloud played all but four minutes of the second half, and jumped into the Maine when the Blue-Gray game was played.
Co-captain Chet Giermak.

The nomination for Indian of the Week could go to but one person—this year the standout was Chet Giermak.

And what a week he had, too! The 6'4" scoring wizard started off his seven day spree at Boston Garden Tuesday night against Colby, and before the victorious Indians had walked off the floor, Giermak had smashed three Gar­den scoring records and pushed his season to the 21 point average last season to break the 2200 point record of Jim Lacy of Loyola. This was a grand total of 96 points for three games, or a 33 point game average which is well ahead of his 31 point average last season. Chet scored 100 points this season to break the 2200 point record of Jim Lacy of Loyola.

In addition to his scoring prowess, Giermak has been a terror under the boards for three seasons, and since the Indians are short on height, this rebounding has been a valuable asset. Chet prepared at basketball-minded Lindblom High of Chica­go, where he was a standout for four years.

Gridmen Proclaim Vito Ragazzo Most Valuable Player;

Lex, O'Pella Second by Narrow Margin in Close Race

One of the few extra points that Buddy Lee missed during the sea­son may have returned to haunt him last week, as he and Back­field Frank O'Pella lost out by a single vote to Vito Ragazzo, named the first Most Valuable Indian! Only the players partici­pated in the balloting. Ragazzo, the highest scoring end in collegiate history, caught 15 touchdowns this year, for a total of 90 points. This enabled him to top Southern Conference scorers, and place second to Jimmy and Henry's Bob Miller in the nation.

Co-­captain Chet Giermak.

Girdmen Most Yardage

He was the nation's leading end in yards over seasons. This week caught 44 passes, which was third in the nation among major colleges. The 18 scoring passes almost doubled the old mark.

Lex, also experiencing his best year in the green, gold and silver silver, wound up second in the nation in total offense, gaining 1,736 yards by passing for 1,325 yards and 18 touchdowns. In addition, "Mr. Reliable" kicked 36 extra points and maintained a near 40 yard punt­ing average.

O'Pella Honored

The husky O'Pella, although he failed to make a single all-star eleven, was singled out by team­mates, opponents and coaches as one of the finest players on many squads seen this year. He was listed as a blocking back, but put most of his time in the games when the other teams had the ball, play­ing a bang-up game at his line­backer position consistently.

Co-captains Chet and George Hughes garnered quite a few votes, while blocking back Joe Mark and tackle Lou Creekmur were also mentioned. Of the players mentioned, only Ragazzo and Mark will return to the fold next fall. Lex, O'Pella, Cloud, Creekmur and Hughes are five of the nine seniors on the squad, and plan professional football careers after graduation.

GIVE DAD ARROWS FOR XMAS

(AND YOU'LL BE SURE TO PLEASE HIM!)

Suggestion 1—A box of five, long wearing Arrow foundations in never-crease style. A white, a solid color and a stripe. $3.65 up.

Suggestion 2—Be choosy and pick out a few good looking Arrow Socks in any style, color or check. 35¢ up.

Suggestion 3—A box of Arrow's new fine hand-knitted, colored borders, whites, or with Dad's own choice. 50¢ up.

Suggestion 4—For outdoor Dad, a couple of rugged and weatherproof Arrow sports shirts will hit the spot. $3.95 + $0.

GIVE ARROWS FOR XMAS

(AND YOU'LL BE SURE TO PLEASE HIM!)
Tribe Basketball Outlook Appears Bright Under Coach Barney Wilson's Tutelage

By Jim Devitt

One of the main reasons why the Tribe basketball team hung up an all-time record in the past few years, and last year lost in the Semi-finals of the Southern Conference Tournament, was the fact that he is something of a surprise. Also, a very good solution would be to chop off Panmun, Davidson and the Citadel. A new intramural record was set. I thought I'd like to write this February possibly, so that I could start training in the spring. If you could do this little job for me, Santa Claus, it would be a very big help. Please don't try me again until the first of April. By the way, you don't happen to know of a replacement for Jerry Bunting, do you? He leaves me this year too ....

Dear Santa Claus:

I have a couple of tall boys on the squad who can play the three-way battle involving KA, Two other records, the 50-yard

A new intramural record was set in the 50-yard breast stroke. Richards' time in the one-man medley.

A new intramural record was established Thursday when 105

Prince George Bicycle & Hobby Shop

Bikes for Rent, Sale, & Repair

SPECIAL STUDENT RENTAL RATES

Clearance of Used Bikes

Grill Next to Campus

Used Juke Box Records 25c each

HAPPY CHRISTMAS

and

A MERRY NEW YEAR

Thieme's Dining Room

Across from Bow Gym

Dinner 5:00 P.M. — 9:00 P.M.

Sunday Dinner 12:00 P.M. — 9:00 P.M.

Cinco Tuesdays

Requires But One Stop at

THE-WILLIAMSBURG SHOP

Duke of Gloucester Street

SAE Qualifies Nine for Intramural Swimming Finals; Takes Favorable Role as Three Fraternities Vie for Second

By qualifying nine men for the finals in six events, SAE must certainly win the Intramural Swimming Championships. The relay record, set by Pi Kappa Alpha, and Phi Epsilon, is expected to stand. The record is arranged in a three-way tie for seventh. Sigma Rho is in sixth. Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Epsilon are the other two qualifiers in the 50-yard breast stroke. Richards' time in the one-man medley.

Barney Wilson

School, Kentucky.

Barney Wilson is married and has two sons: ages 18 months and one week. The latter was born, appropriately enough, on the night of the Colby game in Boston. Richards Threatens Mark

Prince George.

Next to Campus Grill

Miss June Haver, 1949!
The good old days are gone forever—never to stand again on the banks of Lake Mattaca looking over the still waters. Never more will the warm spring days see the youthful Hiawatha's and their lovely Minnehaha's gliding silently across the laughing waters in their little green canoes. Never more will the quiet voices echo the raspy cough of outboard motors or the raucous laughter of the students as they release their pent-up energies in wild races across the lake.

It appears that William and Mary's days of aquatic activities are over—now the students' only ties of the lake or its surroundings is to either go on a biological field trip or to make a special pilgrimage into the woods in large numbers, on well worn paths, and in specified areas.

The lake itself has a natural beauty which needs no enhancing but only an opportunity to be truly enjoyed—this opportunity can be gained by seeing the lake as a favorite amusement spot. It is a crime to let the mere fact of the waters impurity keep us from enjoying ourselves by boating on it. For in the pre-war days the lake-front was one of the most frequented and popular spots on campus, as it is shown year after year by the gallery of pictures, articles, and comments in annuals.

Why not revive the old days and make this chance a reality instead of merely a fond memory? This could be accomplished with the right spirit of co-operation and hard work, for it is not a new radical idea but rather the revival of a once popular pastime here. And it is an idea which many of us have thought and talked about. Now if there is any real interest in this, let's stop talking and be constructive for a change. Let's do something!

Slezak Gains Semi-Finals In Indoor Tennis

For the first time since its inception, the Intramural Tennis tournament will be finished indoors, with the finals tentatively set to be played before the Washington and Lee basketball game January 4.

In indoor play Sunday afternoon, junior Phil Slezak of SAE edged Ralph Frischke, Theta Delta, 6-1, 6-4. In a quarter-final match Slezak will pit his driving game against the steady play of Jerry Jaffe in one half of the semi-final matches, which will be held right after Christmas.

Jaffe has been dumping favorites throughout the meet and will face a tough test with Slezak.

In the other bracket, favored George Larkins, who has dropped two games in as many rounds, meets the winner of the Terry Maholy-Lee Lopper quarter-final match.

The indoor play could produce a couple of upsets, for wood is the fastest of all playing surfaces and it is known as a great equalizer. SAE is leading the tournament team points with 46 followed by Theta Delta with 43.

Pi Lambda Phi, Lions Lead Volleyball Loop

As the intramural volleyball leagues swung into the second week of play, Pi Lambda Phi jumped into an early lead in the Independent Loop and no defeated, while the Minerva Lions, with a 2-0 record, lead in the Independent Loop.

In Wednesday's games, Theta Delta Chi edged Sigma Pi, 13-11, 15-11; Sigma Rho topped Pi Kappa Alpha, 15-9, 15-8; the Radio House Gang defeated the Y-Play, 13-8, 15-8, 15-9; and the Minerva Lions topped the Newman Cardinals, 13-9, 15-10, 15-14.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Pi Lambda Phi won the two games played Friday.

The Cedars

616 Jamestown Rd.
Williamsburg, Va.
A Guest House Of Distinction

WILLIAMSBURG SPORT SHOP

Tennis Stringing by Machine with New Nylon
Not Affected by Rain
A full line of Wilson Sporting Goods
Tennis, Golf and Fishing Equipment, Bicycles
427 Prince George St.
Across from Brown Hall

Make it a Habit to "Drop In" To the Wigwam at Least Once a Day For

- Breakfast, Lunch, or Dinner.
- Between Meal Snacks.
- Pre-Bedtime "Nibble."

The Wigwam

- Serving You -

McCray Named Head of SC Coaches

R. N. (Rube) McCray, William and Mary's director of athletics and head football coach, has been selected to the presidency of the Football Coaches Association of the Southern Conference.

McCray succeeds Bert Little, head coach at the University of South Carolina. He adds this position to a long string of honors accorded him since his arrival at Williams and Mary.

Other new officers of the association include J. H. (Bob) Rowland, of George Washington University, vice-president, and Tom Nugent, of Virginia Military Institute, secretary.

PROVE TO YOURSELF

NO CIGARETTE HANOVER

when you smoke Philip Morris!

In just a few seconds you can prove Philip Morris is definitely less irritating than the brand you're now smoking! 1...light up a PHILIP MORRIS

THIN, but takes a pull—DON'T INHALE—and everybody lets the smoke come through your nose. Everybody talks about PLEASURE, but only ONE cigarette has really done something about it. That cigarette is PHILIP MORRIS! Remember: less irritation means more pleasure. And Philip Morris is the ONE cigarette proved definitely less irritating, definitely milder, than any other leading brand. No other cigarette can make that statement.

YOU'LL BE GLAD TOMORROW—YOU SMOKED PHILIP MORRIS TODAY!

Everybody talks about PLEASURE, but only ONE cigarette has really done something about it. That cigarette is PHILIP MORRIS! Remember: less irritation means more pleasure. And Philip Morris is the ONE cigarette proved definitely less irritating, definitely milder, than any other leading brand. No other cigarette can make that statement.

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

Now you know why you should be smoking PHILIP MORRIS!
The Flat Hat

Pat Stringham Likes People, Activities: Plans Comprehensive Publication Career

By Jane Hale

"You're the most disagreeably normal person I've ever met," a school psychologist once told her. Bliss that time Royalist editor Pat Stringham has added many laurels to the normality which surrounded her. Pat, an "army brat," has lived in no one place long enough to call it "home." She was born in Denver, Colo., and has since roamed to Miami, Fla., Williamsburg and Washington, D. C., but she has enjoyed living in all these cities, if it ever comes to settling down, she would prefer Los Angeles, Mason, Ga., or Washington, D. C., but present home. Any place with a lot of people and plenty of activity might suit Pat.

Preservice Education Program preservice education helped Pat to become interested in the junior high school literary magazine and

Greek Letters

In honor of her new pledges, the Gamma Phi Beta held a buffet supper on Dec. 6, following pledging ceremonies.

Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold a tea dance in honor of its new pledges at the Williamsburg Lodge on Friday, Dec. 16. The annual Christmas party was held at the house on Sunday.

The Phi Mu held their pledge banquet at the Williamsburg Lodge on Dec. 8, following pledging ceremonies.

Sorority Alpha epsilon will hold its formal Christmas dance on Dec. 17 in the Pagoda Room.

Alpha Chi Omega will entertain for the Phi Tau at an after-dinner coffee session on Thursday evening. The chapter held a buffet supper at the house last Thursday night. The chapter has not renewed its membership and is now working to get new pledges.

Linda Spoffit was elected president of the new pledge class and Dick Egler was secretary-treasurer of "VTPA, editor of "The Royalist," and the dramatic club takes up every other spare moment.

Basic Non Lzy

Despite this constant activity, Pat is not too busy, nor lazy. She dabbles in tennis and bowling, flunked physics twice. Pat is an "average" student with nothing to write home about. She would prefer Los Angeles, Macon, Ga., or Washington, D. C. She would rather enter the publication field and preferably start from the bottom to work their way up. The Royalist naturalist prefers the normality which surrounds her, if it ever comes to settling down, she would prefer Los Angeles, Macon, Ga., or Washington, D. C. But present home. Any place with a lot of people and plenty of activity might suit Pat.

A district-wide dance and banquet at the chapter lodge. Other officers are Sara Wachtman, vice-president; Gerry Burkes, secretary-treasurer; Donnie Spotts was elected president of the new pledge class and Dick Egler was secretary-treasurer of "VTPA, editor of "The Royalist," and the dramatic club takes up every other spare moment.

ST. NICK!

HE'S A SYL ONE!!

Every boy he identifies with his merry way, and before we know it he has Christmas upon us.

IT'S GETTING LATE, but we still have some cards for the Christmas season. There are still Christmas Cards on the rack, and we'll be sure to keep the department open. And of course, Interesting Gifts, moderately priced.

Santa Says:

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYONE

During The Holiday Season
Try Our Roast Turkey Dinner

CAPITOL RESTAURANT

Rogers' Cleaners

2 Hour Service
Quality Cleaning Only

Phone 526 Prince George St.

Prescription Filled
Lenses Replaced
Glasses Repaired

White Optical Co.
Newport News, Va.

"we'll meet you at the LODGE"
Lord Botetourt was stivering; the bristling air of Christmas even cut him to the quick. "I must go home to spend Christmas," he muttered. "I can't celebrate it here in Williamsburg."

And indeed dwaird him on that he didn't have the time. "I'm in need to celebrate," he said; and with that, he hopped into his coach and away he went to the Wren. The candles were lit and the men gathered in the windows and served to increase his embarrassment. "Can't celebrate Christmas alone!" Wonder where Will's been keeping himself these last few decades— Hot there you are! Climbing down from that silly game. My lady, you're looking ravishing this evening; haven't aged a bit, my dear." Mary exuded an iron arm gracefully, and remarked that Botetourt was still the gallant gentleman.

The Three Seagulls

The three old friends were chatting when Botetourt, who was feeling particularly good, proposed a Christmas party. "Ring the bell," ordered the duke. "The people will be here in a jolly good time tonight." At the last minute, the duke's estate was once again begged to assemble in the hall, under the holiday spirit. The halls were already perfect for the season. While the ladies prepared a banquet in the Great Hall, the lords gathered in the kitchen.

As usual, the Great Hall was home to the annual Christmas gathering. Holly hung from the beams. The Great Hall had metamorphosed into a Christmas village. "A large tree," shouted Botetourt, "must be set up in the kitchen."

As usual, the Great Hall was once again home to the annual Christmas gathering. Holly hung from the beams. The Great Hall had metamorphosed into a Christmas village. "A large tree," shouted Botetourt, "must be set up in the kitchen."

The same procedures apply to dental treatment or service-related conditions.

WSCGA Announcements

Nicky Dillard, president of the WSCGA, urges those who have not yet to make application for payment in writing within 15 days.

The Yule season is the most appropriate time for man to renew his spirit. The New Year's resolution must be to renew one's spirit as well.

Let this be a Christmas to spend with those you love. The spirit of giving is a gift to all who partake. Gather family, tree-trimming parties and the like. Let this be a Christmas of joy and comfort.

A disabled veteran in training under the G.I. Bill is entitled to a VA hospital or clinic where such treatment is needed. The Veterans Administration will supply such treatment in its hospitals, clinics and other approved facilities.

The same procedures apply to dental treatment or service-related conditions.

WSCGA Announcements

Nicky Dillard, president of the WSCGA, urges those who have not yet to make application for payment in writing within 15 days.

The Yule season is the most appropriate time for man to renew his spirit. The New Year's resolution must be to renew one's spirit as well.

Let this be a Christmas to spend with those you love. The spirit of giving is a gift to all who partake. Gather family, tree-trimming parties and the like. Let this be a Christmas of joy and comfort.

A disabled veteran in training under the G.I. Bill is entitled to a VA hospital or clinic where such treatment is needed. The Veterans Administration will supply such treatment in its hospitals, clinics and other approved facilities.
Radcliffe Will Offer Course In Publishing

The summer course in Publishing Procedures, now in its fourth year at Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass., will be open to men this upcoming summer.

This six-weeks training course introduces college graduates to all the processes of book and magazine publishing. Visiting lecturers consist of the leading figure of the publishing world who represent all types of publications. The course is directed by Helen Everitt, former literary agent, lecturer at Broadcasting Writers Conference and currently New York editor for Houghton Mifflin Company.

The course was started to provide students with a basic knowledge of the publishing field and its job opportunities. To date, more than 80 per cent of all graduates have been placed in publishing jobs.

The course is practical, rather than theoretical, and students perform all the publishing functions, except printing, for a magazine and a book.

Detailed information will be sent to all placement bureaus in January. Inquiries should be addressed to Banking Course in Publishing Procedures, Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass.

Student Group Ends Semi-Annual Meet

Elects New Officers

The semi-annual meeting of the Student Congress of Virginia Colleges and Universities convened at John Dayton to the vice-presidency.

Other officers elected at the semi-annual meeting were: Wade H. Ballard of Washington and Lee, president, and Frank B. Rawlings of the VPI faculty, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. John E. Poore gave a welcoming address last Friday at the group convened in Phi Beta Kappa Hall for a two-day meeting. The Congress represents 12 Virginia colleges and universities, and 65 delegates attended the fall session.

Group discussions were led by Ballard, Dayton, and Lee Bailey.

The Congress adapted a resolution stating that editors and business managers of student publications should be paid a salary.

Organizing officers are Marx Straus of Washington and Lee, president; Pete Alton of VPI, vice-president; and Larry Wood of the University of Richmond, faculty secretary-treasurer.

Polling

(Continued from page 1)

problems is obvious, we feel that the value of squarely facing imaginary problems and thereby preparing for a fictional world is a matter of the purely imaginary is no less a benefit to the creation of a better William and Mary.

Cafeteria Will Close

During Christmas Holidays

The Dining Hall will close for the holidays after noon on Saturday, December 17. Lunch on that day will be served in the North Cafeteria.

The Wigwam will remain open until 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, December 18. Monday through Thursday, the Wigwam will reopen on Sunday, December 25. Lunch next Sunday will be served in the North Cafeteria.

Both the main dining room and the north cafeteria will open at scheduled hours for lunch on Monday, December 19.

Mademoiselle

(Continued from Page 1)

The applications will be examined and reviewed by the committee. The winners will be elected. Following elections, movies will be shown.

Entries should be addressed to Tomorrow Magazine, 426 South Main, Williamsburg, Virginia. They will be open for two weeks to the 200 students now studying abroad under the Fulbright Program. The magazine reserves the right to reject any entry. All applications blanks will be returned.

The magazine reserves the right to reject any entry. All applications blanks will be returned.

The final judgment rests with the students. While in New York City, each student will have an opportunity to attend university and to see the city. He will have a choice of courses and will be free to choose his own courses.

While in New York City, each student will have an opportunity to attend university and to see the city. He will have a choice of courses and will be free to choose his own courses.

The applications will be examined and reviewed by the committee. The winners will be elected. Following elections, movies will be shown.

Entries should be addressed to Tomorrow Magazine, 426 South Main, Williamsburg, Virginia.
Students Discuss German Problems; Graduates From Duke Address IRC

Three graduate students from Western Germany, who are studying for the degree of Doctor of International Relations, met at the International Relations Club December 9. The students, Hans Bunsen, Wolfgang Unten and Max Hennings, are members of a group of 18 who are enrolled at several American Universities this year to observe the history and culture of Western Germany. The students presented their views on German political problems. The discussion was followed by an informal discussion at which many interesting points were brought to the fore.

Unification

On the crucial question of German unity, the students felt that Western Germany wanted to be reunited with Eastern Europe even if it meant continued separation from their brothers in the Eastern Zone. They held that the Western Germans, who want peace and a chance for prosperity, are afraid of Communist Russia and so much upon ideology as upon climatic or dramatic experience. The process of "sovietization," which is being graphically carried out in the Eastern Zone, is deeply involved in the process of "sovietization," which is being graphically carried out in the Eastern Zone. The Western Germans want to re-arm themselves to protect Germany from the threat of the Soviet Union. The students felt that the German political parties today, and especially the new Bonn government, appeared to be progressing favorably towards a new democratic system.

Economic Needs

Concerning the economic scene, both students felt there were three main needs: an end to the "climatization" which appears to have been reached; an increase in investment of foreign capital in Germany; and the renewal of West trade in order to secure supplies and industrial markets. Germany's economic prosperity would depend upon the development of Western Europe, progress along which is still being made in the European Recovery Program. All the speakers strongly believed that this movement was dead. Their ideas of Socialism in the late phases of the war was a great change, since the Allies were not prepared to fight for it, and when the Allies were capable of effective rebellion against this political state.

Education

The German students concluded with a discussion of higher education in Germany today. The overall opinion was that education in the universities has been made more generally available to all classes of Germans and has been somewhat liberalized in the matter of curricula but that strides must be continued along these lines if higher education is to provide the climate of opinion necessary to democracy.

Reverend Brown Addresses Chapel

Reverend James Brown, pastor of the Williamsburg Methodist church, addressed the combined students of God to those attending Chapel service last Wednesday. Reverend Brown warned that a climactic or dramatic experience isn't necessary for one to become aware of His ever-presence, for He touches all practically every day. He said that in spite of this, people often turn a deaf ear to it, scarcely recognizing the flood of spiritual happenings.

To be on the constant lookout for daily blessings, Reverend Brown suggests that everyone try to center his attention on the minor spiritual things, for in this way one becomes alert. He added that the alert Christians speak those timely little words which are so necessary for the college.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

and a

Very Happy

NEW YEAR

from

Douglas B. Green, II

WILLIAMSBURG PHOTO SERVICE

Custodian of James Town Read and Cary Street