Former W-M Professors Rejoin Faculty Staff
Six New Members Will Instruct During 1945-1946 School Term

Ten new professors will join the William and Mary faculty for the current academic year, according to a recent announcement concerning the new members of the faculty who will return from leaves of absence: Dr. Richard H. Benson, professor of Romance literatures and head of the department of economics; Dr. Alfred Armstrong, professor, head of the department of government.

Dr. Southworth and Dr. Moss have been connected with government offices in Washington for the past several years. Dr. Arm· strong has been doing graduate research at the University of Virginia, and Dr. Moss has been on active duty with the army.

Dr. Robert G. Caldwell as an associate professor of sociology comes to William and Mary from the University of Delaware, where he was head of the department of sociology.

At William and Mary, Dr. Caldwell will become associate professor of sociology. At William and Mary, Mr. Phelps has been doing graduate work in sociology and is a native of New Mexico.

In case you don't know, Wigwam is the local college soda, book, cigarette, cafeteria. Even after three years of college tours, those things the professors think enough of the beauties of the campus emporium one may, with a discreet show of patience, overlook. In this matter of getting served in the Wigwam.

Dr. Pomfret has issued the following: "The President's statement reads.

Steps will be taken during this academic session to revive the fraternal organizations. These organizations became inactive in May, 1943, when most of the students were called to active service in the armed forces. The President's statement reads.

The first evening, spent wandering by old-fashioned lamp-posts, in and out of the side shops or up and down the quaint Duke of Gloucester Street, talked about the feeling of belonging. The first night in the dorm, spent sorting the laundry, spent changing the clothes that must make a good impression and impressing what to do with the harshness of a dorm room, begins a new feeling of independence. An college! Undergraduates may ask who is this man? The answer is it is the happiest time of life; many say it is just a poor excuse to play; educators say it is a catalytic influence toward higher learning. Freshmen say, "Ah college!"

Bartzen, Macken Play
Summer Net Tourneys

William and Mary Tennis Team Ties For Second Place In Intercollegiates

After sweeping, everything before them in the Indiens' 14 matches of last season, Tut Bartzen and Brr Macken, William and Mary's terrific twosome, upon the summer months making the rounds of the nation's top-flight tennis tournaments, and gave a very good account of themselves, even when called upon to cope with players who rank among the country's first stop.

The first stop in their travels was the National Intercollegiates at Northwestern University, where they tied for second place in a field of 64 entrants. Macken, playing in his first American tournament, was not up to his usual form and in his first American tournament, of 64 entrants. Macken, playing in his first American tournament, was eliminated in the opening round by Bob Crawford, Navy, with a score of only five games to gain the quarter-finals. Here he faced Nick Buzolich, of Pepperdine College, ranked 13th nationally, and came away with a straight-set victory by scores of 6-2, 6-4. In the semi-finals, Tutt met American's number 3 better, Pepperdine's Howard Schwartz, 6-4, 7-5, while Bartzen posted, an easy 6-1, 6-9 win over Tom Malloy but Bob was eliminated, 6-2, 6-1, by Herbie Flam, schoolboy sensation of California. The victors met in the finals and, after a grueling engagement, Flam and Bartzen came out 6-3, 7-6, 7-5. In the doubles finals Bartzen and Doll fell to Flann and Hugh Bever, 6-4, 6-4.

The National Juniors at Kalamazoo College in the last week of July drew most of the country's talent and experience of the South. The Big Green will not be at the end of the season. That one point per place from the national championship teams, the probable starting lineup will include Denver Mills, 205 lbs., at fullback; with George "Sonny" Davis at tailback from the Pittsburgh Steelers, made good yardage on the line. Magdziak's passes were thrown with accuracy, and Bill Klein, 190 lbs., at the center, had a slow start and lost the opening set but then rolled to win by a score of 6-3, 6-2, 6-3 margin. Once again in a final round he knocked with Bartzen hit 188 lbs., at the center, had a slow start and lost the opening set but then rolled to win by a score of 6-3, 6-2, 6-3 margin. Next came the River Forest Junior which Tutt entered along with Bob Doll, number 3 starter for the Indians. Both gained the semi-finals without too much trouble and here Bartzen posted an easy 6-1, 6-0 win over Tom Malloy but Bob was eliminated, 6-2, 6-1, by Herbie Flam, schoolboy sensation of California. The engagement proved that Coach Marvin Bass has a line to be proud of. Soon after the game started the Pennsylvanians gave up blunders and served errors. A second set was responsible for their lone touchdown and "Red." Then Doll,200 lb. tailback from the Pittsburgh Steelers, made good yardage on the line. Touch Football To Start Soon.

First on the intramural sports program this year is six-man touch football, and trainer Kenneth Rawlinson has stated that all entries must be turned in before October 1. Mr. Rawlinson also said that independent groups as well as fraternities are eligible to enter teams.

Following the intramural football schedule will be basketball, ping pong, free throw, handball, croquet, stephenstone, and possibly soccer intramurals. Medals will be given to first and second place winners, except when a team plays.

Extra points will be given on the same basis as last year: 20 points are given for each team entered, 5 points are awarded for winning a game, one point for competing and not losing, and one point per place from standing at the end of the season. That is, one point for last place, two points for next to last, with the leading team to be given the number of points according to the number of places in the league.
Another fall has rolled around again and with autumn, eyes turn toward events in the sports world. Football certainly takes the lime-light, but so far as winter sports are concerned, none are as thrilling as those that make up the sidelines. At William and Mary the fairer sex gets its exercise through tennis and hockey.

In an intramural program that runs throughout the year, many women see active participation in hockey, tennis, track, basketball, polo, badminton, archery, swimming, and softball. The return of these three boys, juniors, both seniors this year, has greatly strengthened Coach McCray's little tailback, only 165 pounds, is a great passer and dangerous runner. Dewey Maston, 194-pound Richmond returnee, has been a great surprise to the coaching staff. Bucher and Holloway are headed by a sparkling half from a sparkling Unit, with Tamaulipan as the center of attention. 102 courses are listed in the sports catalog, with basketball, team sports, 252, and individual sports such as tennis, badminton, archery, and gymnastics offered. The list of events that are planned for the fall season next spring.

Two veterans—guidon and combat—will co-captain this year's William and Mary football team. The men, Dave Bucher and Johnnie "Doc" Holloway, apparently fully recovered from wounds suffered in the European invasion, were members of the great 1942 team. They were elected at a special meeting of the squad to replace Tom Mikula, who was elected captain of this year's team and has since been called into service. Mikula is now in the Army Air Force and located at Scott Field, Ill.

The Indian team placed six first, three second, and ran a picture of Flam and Mann. The list included Bartzen, who ranked second in the 48 net headlined in the August 13 issue to the tournament.

Having garnered much valuable experience during their travels, Coach Umbach's team can well spark the Indians on an undefeated season next spring.

On the first of the present semester, the history of the "Sleep Like A Spirit" ad used by the Boys' head football coach, Marvin Bass's watchful eye, was the focus of the opening of the stadium. To the right of the corridor leading to this rear of the stadium, looking to the left of the corridor, the stuntmen's room is littered with the various equipment and supplies. One or two boys pay tribute to "Let's go gang!" as they scan the world as if they had just come out of the training program. As the season progresses, the boys are thrown at receiving passes.

Coach McCray's voice booms across the field towards the players. In the meantime, the shrill "Hoo­
